Writing

Resident Terms	Writing Requirements for Full Time Students
1-3	Attempt Writ101
4-6	Attempt Writ202
Notes:	Students must pass Writ101 before attempting Writ202. Provisionally admitted students, students with SAT Reading and Writing section scores below 450, and ELL students must pass Writing 100 before taking Writing 101. Freshmen are permitted to take Writing 202 if they passed out of Writing 101 with an AP English score of 5, or if they earn at least an A- in Writing 101.

For further information, including guidelines for Education majors and transfer students, please refer to the Undergraduate Student Handbook.

Religion

Resident Terms	Religion Requirements for Full Time Students
1-3	Attempt Religion 101 or 110 and 3 more credits
4-6	Attempt 6 credits
7-9	Attempt 3 credits
10+	Attempt 3 credits
Notes:	Attempting a course requires receiving a grade at the end of the term (not W). If Religion 101 or 110 is not passed in a student's first year, it must be retaken in subsequent years in addition to the required attempted credits until it is passed. Students in their third or fourth years may not take 100-level religion courses, except by permission of the chair of the Religion Department.

Transfer Students: Incoming students must pass either Religion 101 or 110. Incoming students who transfer more than 10 credits beyond the minimum for their year level must attempt at least three religion credits in the year they arrive, as follows:

Transfer Credits	Religion Residency Requirements for Transfer Students in Their First Year of Enrollment
1-10	Attempt 6 credits (including Religion 101 or 110, if available)
11-30	Attempt 6 credits (Religion 101 or 110, if available)
31-41	Attempt 3 credits (including Religion 101 or 110, if available)
42+	Attempt 3 credits (Religion 101 or 110, if available). See notes below.
Notes:	Attempting a course requires receiving a grade at the end of the term (not W). If Religion 101 or 110 is not passed in a student's first year, it must be retaken in subsequent years in addition to the required attempted credits until it is passed. Students transferring 42+ credits should be aware that the Core Program's spiritual perspective requirement includes 12 credits in religion courses.

For further information, including guidelines for part-time and study abroad students, please refer to the Undergraduate Student Handbook.
