Registration and Fees:

Application for admission is required for credit seeking students. Auditors must have permission from the instructor and do not need to complete the application process. They should, however, complete this registration form (front and back).

For tuition and fee information, please see Bryn Athyn College's tuition and fees page: https://brynathyn.edu/costs-and-financial-aid/2020-2021-tuition-and-fees/

If you are interested in applying for a New Church Teacher tuition grant, please contact the Financial Aid Office: finaid@brynathyn.edu

Senior citizens 60 years or older may apply for a discount through the Bursar's Office

For specific questions about tuition and payment, please contact the Bursar's Office: 267-502-2493

For general information, please contact program director Rev. Dr. Thane Glenn: thane.glenn@brynathyn.edu
