

BRYN ATHYN COLLEGE

FOUNDED IN 1877

March 2018

Welcome to Bryn Athyn College! We are excited that you are joining us this winter and look forward to welcoming you on March 6th for the start of the spring term.

New students living on campus are expected to move into their residence hall at 1:30pm on Tuesday, March 6th. If you have not done so already, please contact Suzanne Nelson, Dean of Students, at suzanne.nelson@brynathyn.edu, to arrange the details of arriving on campus and getting moved in.

There will be an orientation for all incoming students on Tuesday, March 6th. All incoming students need to attend orientation. Please contact me if this presents difficulties at renata.boodhansingh@brynathyn.edu.

Please take some time over the next weeks to familiarize yourself with the student handbook before you arrive on campus. Here is the link:

I encourage you to peruse the website to learn about the many opportunities for expanding your experiences, including our student clubs and organizations, and get involved in the life of the College from the beginning.

Finally, your academic advisor will contact you to start the registration process. You will also meet your advisor on Tuesday, March 6th, during orientation. The Academic Advising office is located in Pendleton Hall room 21. You will be scheduled to meet with your advisor again the first week of class.

To see a list of winter term course offerings see page 20 and forward of the Course Bulletin:

Also, Dean of Academics, Thane Glenn, and Dean of Students, Suzanne Nelson, will be able to field any other questions you have about academics or student life. Feel free to contact them before you arrive, at thane.glenn@brynathyn.edu or suzanne.nelson@brynathyn.edu if you have any questions.

I am delighted that you have chosen to attend Bryn Athyn College. I look forward to seeing you on Tuesday, March 6th during orientation. Please feel free to e-mail (renata.boodhansingh@brynathyn.edu) or call (267-502-6029) if you have any questions.

Sincerely,

Renata Boodhansingh
Coordinator of Orientation
